

March 2024

The Farmer's House Social Enrichment Schedule

The Farmer's House is committed to providing high quality social enrichment opportunities for people with developmental disabilities. Our activities are staffed with a 1:6 ratio of oversight. If a participant requires a higher level of support they are welcome to bring a 1:1 support person with them to our activities.

Below is our schedule of activities for March 2024. Please complete our online registration for activities you know the participant can attend as space may be limited. Transportation to/from the activity is on your own unless otherwise noted.

March 5	Farm to Fork Cooking Class (Free) 6-7:30 p.m. Platte Woods United Methodist Church
March 9	Adapted Rock Climbing ($20.00) 6 - 8 p.m. RoKC North
March 18	Farm to Fork Cooking Class (Free) 6-7:30 p.m. Platte Woods United Methodist Church
March 25	The Basics of Comedy Workshop (Free) 6-7:30 p.m. Neuro Diverse City

ABOUT THE BASICS OF COMEDY WORKSHOP

Come learn the basics of creating comedy in a relaxed and engaging format! Farmers will experience common acting/theater exercises that break down the anatomy of a joke, adjust your focus, and connect you with others.
